

Jesus was the First Co-Prophet of Scripture

For the very first time yesterday, I discovered that the office of a co-prophet is found in the Bible and the first co prophet was Jesus himself and He portrayed Himself as a co-prophet on the road to Emmaus after his Resurrection when He appeared to two of the disciples. Let me read a little bit of that from the Mass yesterday, from Luke 24, verses 13 through 35: 'That very day, the first day of the week, two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus.' And Jesus then goes on to explain to them what has happened in Jerusalem about His crucifixion and He tells the disciples 'Oh how foolish you are'. So it's interesting to note that if you don't understand prophecy you are foolish! 'How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke. Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory. Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the scriptures'.

Isn't this interesting that all of you people who have criticized me and said there's no such thing as a 'co-prophet' in the Bible or that co-prophecy is phony baloney, you are wrong! Jesus was the first co-prophet! And what did they say to each other after He had appeared to them: 'Then they said to each other were not our hearts burning within us when he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?' That is the number one job of a co-prophet: to open the Scriptures! But then this passage goes on to say that they did not know Jesus until the breaking of the bread; in other words, until the Eucharist. And for all of you who don't think that Mass, that is the celebration of the Sabbath, should be on Sunday, Jesus celebrated this first Eucharist of the church age on the first day of the week, on Sunday. He Himself established when the celebration of the Eucharist should occur.

I have mentioned before that one of my jobs as co-prophet is to explain the falseness of the One World Religion and on the front of this cover itself you see an image of the One World Religion. I've showed this to you before; the chalice has two horns on the bottom and there is a host on the top indicating the sun: it's a perversion of the Divine Trinity. In other words, the two horns are a sexual or physical representation of the Father and the Son. The sun, or the sun god Ra from Egypt in the center, represents the Holy Spirit as feminine. The two horns indicate Hathor the cow goddess; this image comes out of pagan Egypt.

Host depicted as the Sun between two horns

Hathor the Egyptian Cow Goddess with the Sun disk between the two horns.

And in fact, the very first, that I know of, image of the One World Religion, was at the canonization of the two popes in 2014. Let me show you that and remind you of that floral display at the bottom.

If I turn it upside down you'll see the way it is supposed to appear: the two horns at the bottom and the oval in the center symbolizing the One World Religion and the Unholy Trinity. The Antichrist and the False Prophet appear at the bottom, symbolized by the two horns, and the sun in the center symbolizing Satan: the Unholy Trinity of the End Times.

And what's really sad is that the Catholic Bishops are going to have a conference in July and they have adopted a very similar expression of this One World Religion logo. And this is a convocation of Catholic leaders July 1st through 4th. I'm not sure if you can see that, but this is the same basic logo.

In other words, they have twisted the dove's wings and tail to form two horns and the opening in the center, of course, symbolizes Satan. That is a perversion of the Divine Trinity. And my job as a co-prophet of the End Times is to show you how this One World Religion and symbol of the One World Religion is defeated by Mary.

This is her image in Our Lady of Guadalupe. Please notice she is standing on two horns; that's the two horns we've just seen in the One World Religion logo. She is blocking out the sun. So Mary is the weapon who will defeat the One World Religion, Satan and the Antichrist. This is her job given to her by Almighty God in these End Times as prophesied in Genesis 3:15. So I am fulfilling my duties as a co-prophet of the End Times and Jesus, I am very happy and pleased to announce today, was the very first co-prophet. So thank you to all of my subscribers and remember to pray Mary's Rosary; this is how we will defeat the Unholy Trinity of these End Times.