

Crop Circle Blasphemes Holy Name of Jesus

I'm going to begin this program by accepting a challenge from a fellow YouTuber by the name of "divine mercy", and he said I should start a program by making the sign of the cross, and I will do this for two reasons: first of all, you should know how to make the sign of the cross and here's how it goes, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, amen. The reason that is very important for this program is because I'm going to talk about some very powerful demons and I believe I need some extra protection. The sign of the cross will work for you also as a protection against demons.

I've always maintained that crop circles are a result of demonic activity in these End Times, and on this program I want to take a look at one in particular which is extremely satanic, blasphemous and God hating. First of all, some people may not know what a crop circle is, so, let me read the definition as found in Wikipedia: 'A crop circle is a sizable pattern created by the flattening of a crop such as wheat, barley or rye. Crop circles are also referred to as crop formations because they are not always circular in shape. While the exact date crop circles began to appear is unknown, the documented cases have substantially increased from the 1970s to the current time'. The reason for this, I believe, is because abortion became legalized throughout much of the west in the early 70s.

And now, this Wikipedia article continues: 'Twenty six countries reported approximately ten thousand crop circles in the last third of the twentieth century. Ninety percent of those were located in England.' I believe the reason for that is because crop circles are big, big news in England. Satan does not waste his time in countries that don't give him a lot of attention. For example, here in the United States, crop circles are pretty much a ho hum affair, but in Britain, they make a big deal about this. Many of the formations appearing in that area, that is in southern England, are positioned near ancient monuments such as Stonehenge. And, of course, that's not really surprising, a lot of people think that Stonehenge was used by the Druids for human sacrifice and is very evil, has a very evil history.

If these crop circles are demonic in origin, we really should not be surprised, because Saint Paul says that the Antichrist will come with lying signs and wonders, and God will permit a great delusion upon mankind. For example, if we take a look at a crop circle like this, this is a very common form, we see three 6s, there's a 6, another 6, and a third 6. This is very common to find three 6s in a crop circle, but not always. In this crop circle, for example, we find three 7s. And, we should not be surprised at that either, because, in the Book of Revelation, we find both three 6s and three 7s. In fact, there are only two times that Saint John says that we need 'wisdom and understanding' and both times he is talking about numerology. The first time he is referring to 777, and the second time to 666.

Normally, I would not do a program on crop circles, and, in fact, up until now I have refrained from doing so: to me, these patterns are very elementary in shape. I mean, we used to do these when we were in grade school. Take out our compass and a ruler and that would keep us students occupied for a good half hour. However, the crop circle I want to look at today is far more serious: it is very blasphemous in nature. This one appeared about six months ago in Wiltshire, England. Let's take a closer look: here is the crop circle formation we are going to look at set in the beautiful English countryside. Here is the landscape in the background.

The question is: what is the significance of this demonic crop formation? As you can see, this is not really a crop circle like these I have on my wall. Let's take a close-up view. A better term for this design would be a crop formation rather than a crop circle, although there are circles at either end. The real question: is this lettering in between the two circles, and if it is, what does it say? For example, is this a "T" here? Is this a backward "N"? And, if this is not a Roman alphabet, is it perhaps a Greek alphabet? Another YouTuber has suggested that these are Phoenician letters. But, the real key to decoding what this demonic crop formations says you have to tilt this formation on end and read it from top to bottom. Several other people on YouTube have posted videos attempting to analyze what the aliens/demons are trying to tell us but I don't think any of them have looked at this crop circle from top to bottom, that is, in a vertical position.

If we look at this crop formation vertically I believe that these letters are in plain old English and they are spelling out a very blasphemous term. This first letter here is an "F" and it is backwards. Satan often does things backwards. This is a "U" and it is sideways. Of course, I think we know what "FU" represents. Below the "FU" there is a "J". Below the "J" is a lower case "E" and this also is backwards. Below the lower case "E" is a capital "S".

This is probably the most obvious of the letters in this word. I think it's pretty obvious that Satan is planning to spell the word "Jesus". Below the "S", however, we come to a backwards "E", so, maybe Satan is either not a very good speller or he is trying to confuse the issue. Below the "E" we find a "Z". So now, evidently, it appears that Satan is going to spell "Jesus" phonetically.

Now, below the "Z", we found the completion of the "F" word. So, now we know what Satan is talking about. This letter here is a sideways "C" facing down and this bottom letter here is a very large "K" shape. I am not even going to pronounce what the word spells because Satan is performing a terrible act of blasphemy in this particular crop formation. Please notice that each of the letters in this blasphemous message is complete, there are no gaps. None of the letters have any additions or appendages attached to them. There are, however, overlaps, and there is a mixture of lower case and upper case letters, and there is a variation in the size.

Next, I will rewrite this phrase. I will separate the letters. I will adjust the orientation. And, I think we will get a much clearer picture of exactly what Satan thinks of his Master, and ours, our Lord, Jesus Christ. This top letter is fairly obviously an "F" reversed, so, if we put this in here in its proper orientation, we get the first letter in what Satan is trying to tell us here. This "U", the next letter down, is sideways, so we put this in its correct orientation. You can see that Satan is telling us "FU". The next letter is a "J" and we have to adjust this slightly so that you can see the correct angle on it, and that, of course, is the first letter of the word "Jesus".

The next letter down is a reverse lower case "E", so, let me put this in its correct size and orientation. Below the "E" is an upper case "S". So, that goes right here. And, I believe we are beginning to see the word "Jesus" is fairly obvious. Below the "S" is a reverse "E" and this, again, is an upper case letter. So, we'll put that in there and Satan is not spelling "Jesus" correctly, but, I believe we know what he is getting at. And, below the "E" is a "Z", which is backwards, so, let's put this in its correct orientation. And, I believe Satan is now spelling "Jesus" name phonetically.

But, the real clincher is the two letters at the bottom which complete the "F" word. And, this is a "C" which is sideways, so let's put this in its correct orientation. And below the "C" is a "K", this is one of the more obvious letters in the whole group, in fact, this is the letter that got me thinking that Satan had some kind of a devious plan here, and I think it's pretty obvious that he did. Go to hell, Satan, we don't care what you think about our Lord and Savior, you are worthless trash.

Now, I know some people will object that J-E-S-E-Z does not spell "Jesus", but actually, according to the rules of prophecy, you can be accurate and be off by one letter. For example, Nostradamus accurately predicted the rise of Adolf Hitler, except, he called him, "Hister", and as far as "Z" goes, in the name "Jesus", that is a actually correct, phonetically speaking.

On either end of this crop formation there is a circle, and of course the circle symbolizes the feminine or the woman. And, attached to this circle is this rod shaped form with two circles on either side. I won't explain to you what that represents because if I did, Anderson Cooper and Stephen Colbert would put me on television again ridiculing me. You'll just have to figure out what this form represents yourself. Let's put it this way, this shape represents sex and therefore it is in perfect keeping with the rest of the message which Satan is giving to mankind.

Now, there are other interpretations on YouTube of these letters. I think, however, you'll find that they usually have gaps or they have appendages attached to the letters. They are not as clear as my interpretation. I mean, I hope I'm wrong; I hope this message is not from Satan. I hope someone comes up with a much better solution. I know if I were a farmer in Britain I would not want this type of message on my property.

I know Wikipedia and others believe that all of these, or most of crop circles, are the work of vandals. But, in any event, if this is a work of a vandal, or if this is from demons, as I believe it is, as I say, I would not want messages of blasphemy on my property anywhere. And, my advice to farmers in Britain, as I started this program with the sign of the cross, you can keep away the demons. You can put rosaries on the four corners of your property. You can use scapulars. There are many sacramentals and prayers that will keep demons away, and if you do this, you won't be bothered any longer.

So, in conclusion, I believe we can get at least one positive message from this evil crop circle, and that is: there is no such thing as superior intelligence from other planets. There are no aliens; there are no UFO's. All these are signs of demonic deception in the end times. God allows this great delusion, these lying signs and wonders. And why does he allow this? Because we have invited Satan into our lives through the horrible human sacrifice called abortion. If we want to end these demonic manifestations, these signs of hate from Satan towards our lord, Jesus Christ, we need to restore the sanctity of human life which was created by God almighty.
