

Mary's School of Prophecy

Holy Communion No Longer Valid at Vatican or Fatima!

We are going to be talking about a very serious situation in the Catholic Church. The last seven or eight programs we have been talking about Donald Trump's Peace Plan and how that is a fulfilment of Daniel 9:26 and 27 which is a very serious End Times warning to the modern nation of Israel because it is the abomination of desolation as prophesied by Daniel; one of four AODs and Jesus said, "Let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains when they see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet", but as I say there are four abominations of desolation.

The one affecting Israel has not yet occurred, but as we can see, it is about to occur because the first part of Daniel 9:26 and 27, and that is the confirming of a covenant, is being carried out by Donald Trump's Peace Plan, and I believe that Benjamin Netanyahu has been confirming the covenant for a number of years. In other words I believe we are near the end of that time period and we are about to enter the abomination of desolation when the Anointed One will be cut off and when the "prince who shall come" will come and destroy Jerusalem. But before that in these End Times, and I've said all along that the abomination of desolation which affects Catholics comes first. It comes before the abomination for Israel and that abomination of desolation we find in Daniel chapter 10 verse 3, and chapter 12 verse 11 which we will be looking at in a few minutes.

And that abomination started when Pope Francis published his apostolic exhortation Amoris Laetitia because in footnote 351 which is the Rosary number backwards, because it comes from Satan, there are certain cases where you can give that which is holy to the dogs. In other words you can give the Eucharist to people living in mortal sin, specifically Catholics who have been divorced and civilly remarried. However it was almost immediate that most bishops have accepted anyone and everyone to Communion, and in fact on the island of Malta the bishops have interpreted footnote 351, exactly that way. One tiny little footnote; Pope Francis says he didn't even remember it was in there. What a phoney he is; anyone just even shacking up together no problem; you can receive Holy Communion. Of course the church has always taught that that cannot be done. St. Paul says anyone who eats and drinks the Body and Blood of our Lord unworthily is guilty of the Body and the Blood of our Lord.

So what I am going to show on this program, as I have on many programs before, is that Pope Francis' exhortation will invalidate the Eucharist throughout the Catholic Church. The only way a priest is going to be able to ensure his own consecrations are valid is if he disavows Amoris Laetitia. If he says I'm not going to go along with these regulations coming out of the Vatican. I am not going to give Communion to people living in mortal sin. If he does not do this, his consecrations will be the same as if he were in the Episcopal Church for example. I think any Catholic bishop for example or any Catholic theologian would tell you that if a Catholic priest were to leave the Catholic Church and let's say join the Episcopal Church, his consecrations would no longer be valid, even though he used the same matter. That's one of the requirements, even though he said the same words; that's the secondary requirement, he is in the wrong church. It's the church that determines the third requirement and that is the intentions of the priest. Saint Thomas Aquinas taught this a thousand years ago and he was correct, and the church has adopted that position. So when the church ruins the priest's intention, the consecrations are no more valid than if the priests were in a Protestant denomination.

Okay so before we start I think what we should do is to pray our prayer to Our Lady of All Nations. She's the patroness of this apostolate, so let's begin. In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen. Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Father, send now Your Spirit over the earth. Let the Holy Spirit live in the hearts of all nations that they may be preserved from degeneration, disaster and war. May the Lady of All Nations, the Blessed Virgin Mary be our Advocate. Amen.

I want to read to you a couple of articles and make comments at the same time coming out of the Vatican, and this has to do with how the bishops are carrying out Pope Francis' Amoris Laetitia in the Vatican and in Fatima. And the latter is really shocking because Mary prophesied at Fatima there in Portugal the dogma of the faith would always be preserved in Portugal. And Satan, speaking of coups, has scored a real coup here in making all of the consecrations in Fatima invalid. If you go visit Fatima, you will not be able to receive the real Body and Blood of our Lord because of the cardinal, just made a cardinal by the Pope by the way, but first I want to read this one.

This is the headline from Life Site News. “Pro-abortion Argentina president receives Holy Communion along with mistress at Vatican. It was a blatant scandal: Communion was given to a self-affirmed adulterer who is on the point of pushing through legislation to make abortion legal.”

He not only is in an adulterous relationship, but he's a big promotion supporter and I'm sure the Pope did this to let bishops and priests in this country and around the world know that you can't deny Communion to pro-abortion politicians. That's the message he's giving, and he's also letting us know, we Catholics in the remnant Church that Communion is no longer valid in the Vatican. Okay let me read this article. This is Dateline February 3rd, a couple days ago in Life Site News.

“Last Friday, January 31st, the divorced pro-abortion president of Argentina, Alberto Fernandez, and his concubine both received Holy Communion from Bishop Marcelo Sanchez Sorondo during a Mass in Saint Peter's Basilica, shortly before meeting with another compatriot, Pope Francis, for a 44-minute talk during which the issue of abortion was avoided.

It was a blatant scandal: Communion was given to a self-affirmed adulterer who is on the point of pushing through legislation to make abortion legal, and who has made this one of his political priorities. Moreover, the sacrilege took place in the very heart of Christendom, with all the publicity associated with such a celebration during a State visit.”

Now I took a picture here from Life Site News, so let's take a look and see. Here is President Fernandez and his mistress, and I will continue on in this article.

“The audience with Pope Francis was long and cordial. The Apostolic Exhortation that opens the door to Holy Communion for divorced people engaged in a new ‘marital’ union was given to the presidential couple by the Pope together with all the major documents signed by him during his pontificate, as is the custom.”

That's the book that he's holding there. “While the Pope insisted on his exhortation Gaudete et exsultate about ‘the call to holiness in today's world,’ the gift of Amoris Laetitia, which in a footnote suggests that divorced and ‘remarried’ couples can receive the sacraments under certain circumstances, was particularly apt for the occasion.

Alberto Fernandez, 61 has been living with the Argentine actress Fabiola Yañez (38)”; I guess she’s 38 years old; he’s 61; “since 2014. Since his election last December, she has moved in together with him at the Presidential Palace in Buenos Aires and plays the role of First Lady despite the informal character of their arrangement.”

Now “informal character” means that anybody can receive Communion as the bishops in Malta, as I said, have interpreted Pope Francis’ exhortation. Anyone and everyone in Chicago may receive Communion according to Cardinal Cupich.

And when they say “certain circumstances” and supposedly the limited; under certain circumstances; this is rare, etc., I think Tim Staples did a program on Catholic Answers; “Well this is going to be very rare.” Well, obviously it's not going to be very rare. Bishops around the world are going to interpret it.

Now fortunately the bishops in Poland, they immediately squashed any idea that they would give Communion to people living in mortal sin. The Pope went there on the World Youth Day and he laid down the law. He got off the tarmac and they had an immediate meeting with all the bishops of Poland, and he laid down the law. He says you've got to promote more immigration, and you've got to give Communion to the divorced and civilly remarried. Well the bishops, immediately after their little get-together with Pope Francis had their own press conference and they said we are not going to promote immigration, and we are not going to give Communion to people living in mortal sin. So that indicates that the consecrations in Poland of Catholic priests will remain valid. So now I want to read the second article because this is really scary.

“Portuguese Cardinal allows divorced and remarried Catholics to receive communion. The Cardinals path of discernment” ; this is their catch-all phrase now, if divorced and civilly remarried are on a path of discernment, then they can interpret our Lord's words; you cannot give that which is holy to the dogs unless they're on a path of discernment; “was implemented in the wake of Pope Francis exhortation Amoris Laetitia.” And the date line on this is February 6th 2020 in an article published in January by the Portuguese daily Jornal de Notícias.

“Cardinal António dos Santos Marto”, I wonder if he's related to for instance Francisco and Jacinta Marto; I think that was their name, Marto, “of Leiria-Fátima”, that's the diocese; that includes the shrine, “officially announced”, officially, see they're making this public; they're letting people know, and I'm sure Pope Francis not only approved this, he probably told them to do this, “that two divorced and remarried couples and a divorced and a remarried woman have been allowed to receive Holy Communion in his diocese ‘like any Catholic’.”

And “like any Catholic” is in quotation marks. That was their way to express it.

“Three more couples are following a path of discernment, which will allow them to receive the sacraments after having shown that they are having a good faith relationship with God”.

In other words, do not give that which is holy to the dogs unless they have a good faith relationship with God. We're going to have to change the Bible quite a bit as you can see, just like the Pope is changing the “Our Father”. There are a lot of other rules that the church has always followed but it's a lot easier to change Scripture though to match the rules, than it is to make rules that follow Scripture.

“The first ever couple who have obtained such official permission to receive Holy Communion with the approval of Cardinal António Marto of Leiria-Fátima Portugal recently went public about their case.” They're not going to hide this. “They are a former female catechist and a divorced man who have been in a civil marriage for 10 years. They have been allowed to receive the sacraments since May 2019 after completing a path of discernment organized by the Diocese of Leiria-Fátima in Portugal. The path was implemented there in the wake of Amoris Laetitia which opens the door to such situations and the couple's name is Rosalie Rodriguez and Castillo Crespo.”

Here's the bishop on the left who is now a cardinal that okayed this at Fatima. Now I'll continue with story.

“Remarkably the story came out about the same time that the Argentinian press related how the new president of Argentina Alberto Fernández received Communion together with his second official mistress Fabiola Yañez, although he is divorced and is actively working for the legalization of abortion in his country. In an added twist, the first time Rosalia (39) and Castillo (47) from Almeria received Communion as a divorced and remarried couple was May 13th 2019, the Feast Day of Our Lady of Fatima who appeared to three children from May to October of 1917 in the mountain village of the same name 30 miles away.”

Satan is throwing it right back in our faces. That's why that date was chosen. That's why that place was chosen. Satan is showing that he now has control over Fatima. And I want to just review quickly why this ruins the consecrations of priests. If a person living in mortal sin approaches the altar rail to receive Communion, he commits another mortal sin. As St. Paul said, anyone who receives the Body and Blood of our Lord unworthily is guilty of the Body and the Blood of our Lord, but the priest's consecrations remain valid for everyone else.

The second instance is if the priest knowingly gives Communion to people living in mortal sin. He knows let's say a couple in this parish are living together, and they shouldn't be, and he gives them Communion anyway, then the sin is on him, but his consecrations remain valid. The priest can be in a state of mortal sin. That doesn't affect his priestly consecrations.

The third instance is different, and that is if the church tells him to give Communion to the divorced and civilly remarried. That ruins the consecrations. They are no longer valid, because there are three requirements for a valid consecration; a priest must use the same words that Jesus used, he must use the same manner that Jesus used, he must have the same intention that Jesus had. Jesus did not intend to give the Eucharist to the traitor Judas. That's why he sent Judas away from the Last Supper before He gave Holy Communion. And what the Pope is doing and what his bishops and cardinals are doing is destroying the validity of the Eucharist.

I was going to show you where it is in the Bible about the False Prophet taking the daily sacrifice away from the prince. This is the abomination of desolation as it affects Catholics and that tells us that the AOD for Israel is soon to be upon us also, and I've said for many years that the abomination affects the Catholic Church before Israel, so they will be number 2.

The third abomination of desolation which affects Protestants already occurred 2,000 years ago and that simply means that, for those who will be raptured, you have to be ready at all times. As Jesus said, He will come like a thief in the night, so those are the three groups.

The fourth group, so long as we are mentioning the four groups; the fourth group which is the abomination of desolation for the martyrs; that will be brought in by the Antichrist. So we have a ways to go for that. I'm not sure how long and I will continue with this tomorrow because this is very serious. I already I did seven or eight programs on the abomination for Israel and certainly I can discuss the current abomination as it is playing out before our very eyes. End Times Bible prophecy is here now.

So God bless all of you and may all of you have a very blessed evening.
